

The petitioner mentions that retaining the Morse code requirement for HF operating rights is a matter of public safety. Public safety organizations (the US Coast Guard, for example) no longer use the Morse Code system for emergency communications. I do agree, however, that portions of each amateur radio band should be retained for CW operations